MR. N. D. PARAMESWARAN NAMBOODIRI : In view of the answer to parts (a) and (b), may I take it that this House is not entitled to know the strength of the staff ?

PRESIDENT : The whole position is this. It is, of course, open to the University to answer these questions just as it is open to the municipalities or any other local body to answer these questions as a matter of courtesy. Generally speaking, they do so. But the position is this: when the University grant comes up, questions of policy pursued by the University, questions on the methods of recruitment etc. can be raised as want of confidence in the University, and either the grant may be given or not given. Apart from that when it is a statutory, autonomous body like these under the District Municipalities Act or the Corporation, questions as to details of administration in the University are not admissible and may be answered only as a matter of courtesy.
